Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

The "Rogues' Gallery" now contains 22,187 photographs, 15,616 of which are photographs with Bertillon measurements, a system used by this department during the past seven years. In accordance with an act passed by the Legislature March 25, 1899 (chapter 203, sections 1 and 2), we are allowed photographs, with Bertillon measurements, of all convicts now in the several prisons in this State, and of those who have been confined there and who are measured under that system and photographs taken,—a number of which have already been added to our Bertillon cabinet. This, together with the adoption of the system by this department in 1898, is and will continue to be of great assistance in the identification of criminals. A large number of important identifications have thus been made during the year, for this and other police departments, through which the sentences in many instances have been materially increased. The records of 1,957 criminals have been added to the records kept in this Bureau, which now contains a total of 28,484. This Bureau has issued 355 prison reports of discharged convicts, containing the full records, description, distinguishing marks, etc., of 165 convicts who were discharged during the year, and whose records were considered of sufficient importance to preserve. Other police departments were furnished with 143 copies of these reports. The number of cases reported at this office which have been investigated during the year is 13,330. There are 14,598 cases recorded on the assignment books kept for this purpose, and reports made on these cases are filed away for future reference. Letters and telegrams to the number of about 2,000 yearly are now filed with the numbered reports to which they refer, so that all the papers pertaining to a case can be found in the same envelope, thus simplifying the matters when information is desired on any case. The system of indexing, adopted by this Bureau for the use of the department, now contains a list of records, histories, photographs, dates of arrests, etc., of about 79,500 people; there are also "histories and press clippings," now numbering 5,654, kept by this Bureau, in envelope form, for police reference.

The statistics of the work of this branch of the service are included in the statements of the general work of the department; but as the duties are of a special character, the following statement will be of interest:—

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONS TWENTY YEARS OF AGE OR OVER, RESIDENTS OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

On page 14 will be found the table of residents as they were listed by the police during the first seven week days in May, 1905, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 279 of the Acts of 1903, and amendments thereto.

The alteration in the law, which gave the police department more time (that is, until September 20) to examine into the truth or falsity of the application to be placed on the supplementary lists, was of service.

The printed lists of residents have been used to good advantage by the route officers in familiarizing themselves with the names and homes of the persons who live on their routes.

This year the Board of Police made a thorough investigation of the lodging-houses, both large and small, throughout the city, and questioned personally, so far as they could be seen, each lodger therein on the subject of his residence.

The greatest difficulty has been found by the police in obtaining from informants, particularly those of foreign birth, the correct names of lodgers in lodging-houses, residents in hotels and houses in general, where several men lived. The Board of Police, therefore, printed and distributed, with good effect, before May 1, notices in the Yiddish, Polish and Italian languages, as well as in the English language, notifying the inmates of houses, suites and tenements of the law, and asking them to write on the notices the number of the male residents living therein. These were collected by the officers and used to verify the number of names given, to prevent omissions.

It will never be possible to make, in the first week of May, an absolutely perfect list of residents. Many of them, such as sailors, soldiers, commercial and other travellers, will always be away from Boston at that time, and few take the precaution to leave their names with persons who may inform the police in May of their residences. The great reduction in the number of applications for supplemental listing appears to show more thoroughness each year in the work of the police officers in making this canvass in May.

There were only 705 applications in all for supplementary registration in 1905, and 697 of these were listed and given certificates of residence. This compares favorably with 1,280 names so listed in 1904, 3,360 names so listed in 1903, and 4,096 names so listed in 1902, the last year in which the listing was done by the assessors.

This year only 8 applications were refused after examination, and no prosecutions were found necessary, as those applications which were rejected were made by mistake, and not from any criminal intent. In 1903 the number of rejections was 53 and in 1904 there were 55 applications rejected.

POLICE SIGNAL SERVICE.

Underground Cable.

During the year there were 26,981 feet of underground cable laid in East Boston and Charlestown, being 16,421 feet more than the 2 miles which is required by law to be placed underground each year.

Of the excess, 11,748 feet had to be laid in East Boston at this time in order to follow the line of the duct used jointly by the fire and police departments, and 4,673 feet in Charlestown in order to avoid the responsibility of maintaining a line of poles which was abandoned by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

There were 2,500 feet laid in Washington Street in Dorchester on account of the high-tension wires used by the Edison Illuminating Company.

There were 1,150 feet laid in Ruggles Street on account of the operations of the sewer department there.

There were 180 feet laid in La Grange and Washington streets and 250 feet in Hayward Place on account of the Washington Street subway.

There were 20,450 feet of overhead cable taken down in the Charlestown district and replaced by the underground system. On account of its having been in use a number of years, only about one-half of that taken down will be available for further use.

Signal Boxes.

Six new post boxes were placed in the Charlestown district, 9 in the East Boston district and 1 in the Dorchester district; 15 new post boxes were substituted at different places throughout the city in place of as many wall boxes taken down; 3 post boxes and 1 wall box, knocked down by teams, were repaired and put in place; and 3 post boxes and 1 wall box were relocated.

Miscellaneous Work.

During the year the employees of this service responded to 1,552 "trouble" calls; inspected 451 signal boxes, 15 signalling desks, 921 batteries, 60 pole changers and 60 relays; repaired 93 box movements, 13 registers, 11 time stamps and 14 gongs; put new fittings in 17 "Gamewell" boxes and 82 "turtle-back" boxes; made 35 polar bells and 30 box locks; repaired 54 call bells at the several stations and 13 at headquarters; and performed a large amount of new work and made many repairs on the signalling apparatus which cannot well be classified.

There are in use in the signal service 31 horses, 19 patrol wagons and 13 pungs.

During the year the wagons made 34,756 runs, covering an aggregate distance of 27,896 miles. There were 33,008 prisoners conveyed to the station houses; 1,121 runs were made to take injured and insane persons to station houses, the hospitals or their homes; and 595 runs were made to take lost children to station houses. There were 729 runs to fires and 78 runs for liquor seizures. During the year there were 451 signal boxes in use, arranged on 60 circuits; 874,899 telephone messages and 2,690,734 "on-duty" calls were sent over the lines.

The following list of property is comprised in the signal service at the present time:—

PENSIONS AND BENEFITS.

Dec. 1, 1904, there were 203 pensioners on the roll. During the year 10 died, viz., 1 captain, 1 lieutenant and 8 patrolmen; and 13 were added, viz., 1 inspector, 1 assistant keeper, 1 sergeant and 10 patrolmen; leaving 206 on the roll at date, including the widows of 9 and the orphans of 1 policeman, who died from injuries received in the service.

The payments on account of pensions during the past year amounted to $129,687.67, and it is estimated that $130,352.50 will be required for pensions in 1906. This does not include pensions for 1 captain, 1 sergeant and 6 patrolmen, all of whom are sixty-five years or over, and are entitled to be pensioned on account of age and term of service.

The invested fund of the police charitable fund on the 30th of November last amounted to $207,550. There are 65 beneficiaries at the present time, and there has been paid to them the sum of $8,250 during the past year.

The invested fund of the Police Relief Association on the 30th of November was $84,350.

FINANCIAL.

A requisition was made on the city council for the sum of $1,990,513.45 to meet the running expenses of the department, including the pensioned police officers, house of detention, station house matrons, liquor license expenses and police signal service for the financial year.

The total expenditures for police purposes during the past year, including the pensions, house of detention, station house matrons, liquor license expenses and listing persons twenty years of age or more, but exclusive of the maintenance of the police signal service, were $1,868,401.53.

The total revenue paid into the city treasury from fees for licenses over which the police have supervision and for sale of unclaimed and condemned property was $1,510,872.43, of which $1,455,681.50 was received for liquor licenses. (See Table XVIII.)

The cost of maintaining the police signal service during the year was $62,415.30. (See Table XIX.)

CONCLUSION.

The summary of arrests for the year shows a decrease in offences against the person, against property with violence, against chastity and morality and against offences not classified in the above, including drunkenness, in which there was a decrease of 1,213, as compared with last year; and a slight increase in offences against property without violence, against property with malice, against the currency and against the license laws.
